Dear Edna Louise Spear Families,

Welcome back to another school year! We have had a successful first few days of school, and are looking forward to settling into our routines. I am thrilled to have the building bustling with smiling faces again!

Now that we are back in session, I would like to welcome you to our upcoming Back-to-School Nights that will be held virtually on Tuesday, September 21 and Wednesday, September 22.

Mr. Walker and I would like to invite you to a brief meeting. Parents may join us using this link: Back-to-School Night or <https://meet.google.com/rxk-dqzr-dcu>. Then your childrens' classroom teachers will host their Google Meets according to the schedule below. Your classroom teachers will send you information on joining their presentations.

All special area teachers and support staff will be available to meet with you for an overview of their programs on the days listed below. You will find their Google Meet links next to their names below.
