

Cooking & Etiquette Classes!

by

The Bite Size Bake Shop

Program Description:

These cooking and etiquette classes are designed to introduce young chefs, ages 8 & older, of all aspects of cooking, serving and basic table etiquette. Each child will prepare and cook their own items during each session. There will also be an etiquette lesson delivered that covers the basics of table setting, appropriate table manners, food prep and service.

This class will be held in a 4-part series culminating in a full meal prep and service for the child's family. The classes will be drop-off for the first 3 sessions. Classes 1, 2 and 3 will each be 1 hour long and will focus on building the individual components of a meal (appetizer, entrée, dessert) and the final class will run 3 hours and include a chance for the family to join each child and eat their prepared meal together.

Students ages 8 & older must register and attend all parts of the series. All meal ingredients and cooking supplies will be provided for each student/family registered.

Cost: Full series will be $210.00 $25.00 sibling discount on 2nd and subsequent children enrolled from same family.

Dates: Sunday, March 8	4:00pm-5:00pm, appetizers— pinwheels
Sunday, March 15	4:00pm-5:00pm, main course— quiche (ham & cheese or spinach & mushroom)
Sunday, March 22	4:00pm-5:00pm, dessert— blueberry scones
Sunday, March 29	3:00pm-6:00pm Full meal—full meal prep and breakfast for dinner service

Final dinner will be for the child plus 3 family Members, additional family members will be $10 each.

Register Online at PortJeff.com