

THREE VILLAGE HISTORICAL SOCIETY + MUSEUM
INVITES YOU TO:

FARMERS MARKET GARDEN WORKSHOPS

HANDS ON ACTIVITIES
FOR LITTLE LEARNERS

WORKSHOPS EVERY
20 MINUTES
FROM 3 - 6 PM

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Farmers Markets are about more than shopping small and supporting local - they are a place to learn, grow, spend time with friends & family, and connect with your community!

Little learners are invited to get their hands in the dirt with a series of gardening workshops designed to spark curiosity, foster their love of nature, and explore where food comes from.

Led by educators and taking place every 20 minutes from 3 - 6 pm during the Three Village Farmers Market.

Ideal for ages 4 - 12 - must be accompanied by an adult.

Dates:

- Friday, May 8th: From Kernel to Popcorn

Discover how popcorn grows and pops in this hands-on workshop.

- Friday, May 15th: Growing the Three Sisters

Learn what the three sisters are and how to grow them in your garden.
